A Note from Father Mike

We hear in the Gospel reading today, about Jesus healing two women of Israel. Both were in great need. Both were struggling for life. Both were precious in God's eyes. Jesus' life, along with his death, brings us life changing healing. Our Lord chooses not to leave people in the conditions in which he finds them. He has the power to alter those struggles and does.

We too as followers of Jesus can strive to help alleviate the struggles of others. One way we can accomplish this is through our prayers and intercessions. This can help to bring much needed healing into troubled circumstances. May God grant us the courage to act as an image of Christ.

Sincerely

Fr. Mike

Scam Email

Once again, we have been subject to a 'phishing' scam on email.

We will never communicate asking you to 'do me a favor' or 'i need your help' with Fr Mike's name on the message. His name, like all of the staff names on the website, is so easy to 'see' and use in these sorts of messages.

Always look at the 'sendee' and see if the name matches our usual stmm.net email. When in doubt, don't respond to email but rather, call the offices at school/church to verify if this is real.
